LOCAL NEWS.

Rev. C. E. Russell returned here Feb. 25, and resumed his duties as pastor of the Plymouth church.

Albert Tongue has leased H. J. Hudson's farm for one year and takes possession with his family, this week.

Mrs. Lizzie Buck has been at Island Pond for some time, caring for Miss Edna Ladd, who is ill with appendicitis.

Miss Winnie Burroughs, who has been at W. A. Moulton's for several weeks, returned to her home in Morgan this week.

Those who attended the opening of the new Clyde River Hotel at West Charleston Friday evening report a very pleasant time.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Lang, who have spent the winter with their daughter at East Brighton, returned to their home here last Monday.

O. B. Exley returned Tuesday from South Ryegate. His brother, who died from the injuries received in a quarry accident, was buried at that place Monday, Feb. 26.

A contest between ten of the local checker players is being enjoyed this week, the winning five to be furnished an oyster supper by the losers. So far they are pretty evenly matched.

WEST CHARLESTON.

Mrs. Effie Lyon is entertaining her sister.

Eugene Lyon has moved into the M. E. Wilson tenement.

Miss Bertha Kenney is entertaining a friend from Derby.

Beryl Temple is at home, and is sick with the jaundice.

The Derby Academy students spent the past week at home.

Miss Madge Parlin has gone to New Hampshire for a visit.

Miss Eva Pickel is at work at Newport in the overall factory.

Oscar Davis of Island Pond was in town on business the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Church have been on the sick list the past week.

James Gray of West Derby visited his daughter, Mrs. Walter Wilson, last week.

Henry Wilder has closed his labor for Solon Gray in Morgan and is now in town.

Mrs. Erwin Willey of Barton Landing visited her father, Mr. Hildreth, over Sunday.

The remains of Mrs. Asbhel Nye who died at Barton were brought here for interment Saturday, beside her husband who died here several years ago.

The opening of the Clyde River Hotel last Friday evening was a grand success in every way. The Blair orchestra was in at Barton, Newport, Derby, Holland and tendance, rendering fine music. The towns Morgan were well represented, giving the house a good send-off. There were two hundred covers laid. The repast was of the very best, ranging from oysters to ice cream. The proprietor, Wm. Nelson, and his hospitable wife, did the honors of the evening in a very genial way, making all feel welcome. The structure is a four story building finished in hard wood with modern improvements, lighted by electricity and warmed by steam. Speeches were made by Rev. Mr. Burgin, J. B. Holton and J. C. Oliver.

COVENTRY.

Cyrus Metcalf has moved to Burlington.

Mrs. Austin Mongeon is sick with the grip.

Marion Guild is home from Derby, where she has been caring for Mrs. Bert Ritchie.

C. J. Brooks is finishing off his store office into a meat room. He runs a cart to Newport.

Martin, son of Ernest Perry, ran into the fence while sliding down hill recently and broke his leg.

Mrs. J. K. Herter and daughter are home from South Troy where Charlene has been teaching.

Rev. M. H. Ryan preached in the Methodist Episcopal church in exchange with Rev. M. A. Turner yesterday.

The remains of Mrs. Almira Collins were brought here Sunday morning from Manchester, N. H. A few months ago Mrs. Collins sold her place here and went to Manchester to live with her son Leslie. She had been ill for the past five weeks, but was tenderly cared for by her children.

Mrs. Collins was a member of the Methodist church of this place and was a consistent Christian, and gave of her means for the support of the cause of Christ. Her death seems peculiarly sad, following so closely after the death of her grand-daughter Kathie, whom she brought up. She leaves to mourn her loss four daughters, Mrs. Ellen Trow and Mrs. Minnie Lane of Leominster, Mass., and Mrs. Edna Stanford of Wilder, who were present at her funeral, and one daughter in the West, who was unable to be present, and one son, Leslie. The funeral was held Sunday at 1 o'clock in the Methodist Episcopal church, Revs. A. S. Bole and M. A. Turner officiating. The singers were Mrs. S. H. Pearson, Mrs. Ellen Ware, Homer Wright and A. D. Thurber. The funeral was in charge of C. H. Green. The bearers were S. H. Pearson, George Ware, J. C. Chapman and A. B. Hancock. Mrs. Collins was 79 years and 1 month old.

CRAFTSBURY.

Mr. Hanson has purchased the A. D. Spaulding property. Mr. and Mrs. Spaulding expected to leave last Saturday for Boston, where they will make their home for the present.

The conundrum social given by the Epworth League last Tuesday evening at Martin Sawye's was a very unique affair. The conundrum bill of fare made the refreshment hour especially interesting.

NORTH CRAFTSBURY.

Mrs. Will Dustin has gone to visit her cousin.

Joe Mullany is home from Burlington hospital.

Miss Lilla Mullany is quite sick at the Sheehan house.

A. Paddock, who has been on the sick for a week, is better.

Mr. Frank Dickerson and Bert Woodbury went to Burlington last Friday.

Mrs. Albert Smith is very ill. The grip seems to have assumed a new form which is much feared.

A number from here attended the lecture at East Craftsbury by Thomas McClary. It was the third one in the lecture course.

Mrs. Minnie Woodbury and Mrs. Mina Wheeler went to Mrs. Kate Dutton's recently to help celebrate the birthday of Mrs. Dutton.

The lecture given by A. B. Rowley in the Congregational church was very much enjoyed by all present and was a loss to those who did not attend.

The ancient history class will give a social at the C. A. H. U. An interesting program has been prepared, refreshments will be served, and a good time expected.

EAST CRAFTSBURY.

March came in like a lion. Good!

It is reported that John Wylie of this place is working up a "Minstrel Show." Watch for the announcement.

Rev. John Hood has been engaged to hold services in the church here on Sunday afternoons at two o'clock for an indefinite time.

The lecture given by Rev. Thomas McClary in the church here last Wednesday evening was well attended in spite of the cold. Mr. McClary announced as his subject, "Sunshine and Labor." Happiness, he said, was dependent on work, but the work must be that for which the person was fitted. The many wise and witty things which he said received emphasis from his wonderful facial distortion, and I am sure none could go away feeling that they had gained nothing from it or wishing to have their money refunded.

DERBY.

Mrs. Flavia Pleasance is ill with pneumonia.

Chester Carpenter is quite ill with the measles.

Mrs. A. T. Dailey returned from Troy Saturday.

Miss Colby has been spending her vacation at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Kelley spent Sunday in town.

Miss Ella Taylor went to Boston Saturday to spend her vacation with her mother.

Several couples from here attended the opening of the hotel at Charleston Friday evening.

Mrs. Smith of Lowell, Mass., is here, called by the illness of her sister, Mrs. Burt Ritchie.
